S.A. MINUTES

December 1, 1964

The meeting began with a devotional.

Dr. Gilliam, Mike, and Jim were absent.

The minutes were approved.

Hollis reported that that the telephone forms were now in use in the boys' dorms.

The rule clarification committee will meet no more until after Christmas.

Dave talked to Dr. Benson about the Emerald Room project. He is very enthusiastic, and also suggested the possibility of using the covered area at the north end of Pattie Cobb as a place to play ping-pong or shuffleboard. Mrs. Puckett will be consulted on ideas for redecorating the room.

The Student Directories will be sold tomorrow for $.25.

Line cutting is increasing; an appeal will be made in chapel.

The judges for the Toy and Dolly Drive will be Dr. Gilliam, Mrs. Puckett, and Mrs. Wellborne.

More advertising for the Christmas projects is needed. Additional signs, a bulletin board display will be made.

Ann Griffin was present and she reported on the progress of the Christmas program and the campus decorations.

Dave said he would be gone next week so Hollis would preside at the meeting.

Eileen and Linda said they were continuing to work on a calendar for next semester.

The meeting was adjourned.
